

Zappanale #27

What a blast. The Idiot's quick guide:

Guranfoe (who opened the inaugural Moo-ah in 2013 as Gumbo Variation): best in park;

Inventionis Mater - Zappa Duo (who received a standing ovation for both Echidna's Arf (Of You) and G-Spot Tornado): exciting at the exhibition;

ZERO Ensemble (fronted by two lovely ladies - sorry, three: Alli Bach, Juliana Brandon and, of course, Patrice Zappa-Porter): belting on the Mystery Stage;

Muffin Men feat. Denny Walley: top dogs on the Main Stage - effin' excellent! (How lucky were we to have these last two playing at Moo 3 the following year?)

Honourable mention to Don & Bunk, who gave a nice intimate performance in the exhibition space, then a lengthy main stage set with The Yellow String Quartet feat. Ed Mann.

Long may they run.

The photographic evidence

HOME

NEWS

OTHER DIARIES

REVIEWS